

Business – FCC Transparency Rule

The FCC’s Open Internet Transparency Rule empowers consumers to make informed choices about broadband services. The Rule requires that NorthState provide details about our broadband service for you to make informed choices – including choices about speed and price.

NorthState has developed several “broadband labels” to comply with this order. Click on the links below to read details about each individual service.

Standard Internet

Fiber Internet 30

Fiber Internet 50

Fiber Internet 100

Fiber Internet 300

Fiber Internet 500

Fiber Internet